The Annual Spelling Bee at Al Injaz

The annual Spelling Bee competition at Al Injaz International Private School dazzled with excitement as students showcased their linguistic prowess. Representing their respective houses, eager contestants battled through a challenging array of words, in three different stages from the simple to the complex.

The atmosphere buzzed with encouragement from fellow classmates and teachers, fostering a spirit of camaraderie and healthy competition.

After several intense rounds, the top spellers emerged, demonstrating not just their spelling skills but also their hard work and dedication. Using the latest Interactive Panel technology, every student enjoyed the show that was broadcast in each classroom.

The event highlighted the school's commitment to academic excellence and teamwork, leaving participants inspired for future challenges and proud of their achievements.

Celebrating Ascension Day with pride!

Ascension Day of His Majesty Sultan Haitham bin Tariq Al Said was celebrated with great enthusiasm at Al Injaz International Private School. The special assembly brought together students and staff to honor the Sultan's leadership and vision for the nation.

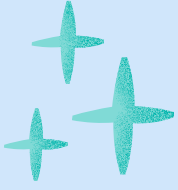

The event featured inspiring speeches, traditional Omani music, and cultural performances that showcased the rich heritage of Oman. Students participated in various activities, reflecting on the Sultan's contributions to the country's progress and development.

The assembly not only fostered a sense of national pride but also strengthened the community's bond, emphasizing the importance of unity and respect for Oman's traditions under the Sultan's guidance.

An Unforgettable Camping Experience at Al Injaz

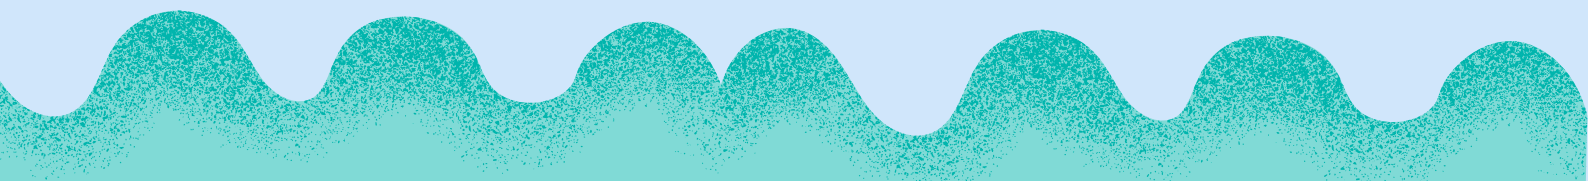

Camping on the Al Injaz premises for students in grades 3 and 4 was an exciting opportunity for our prosperous Al Injazians that combines adventure with valuable life skills and engaging academic activities.

Spending a night in tents fosters independence and teamwork as students collaborate to set up their campsites. Through hands-on experiences, they learn essential skills like problem-solving, communication, and planning.

The camping experience also integrates academic learning with themed activities, encouraging students to explore their surroundings while honing their observational skills, while enriching students' education and preparing them for future challenges.

Al Injaz Shines in a Nationwide Celebration of Athletics

The Ministry of Education, in collaboration with the Oman School Sports Association, recently hosted the Unified Sports Day (Shwayat Riyada), a significant event that engaged over 900,000 students across the Sultanate of Oman, and Al Injaz International is proud to have been an active participant.

The event emphasized the importance of regular exercise, fostering a culture of health and well-being within the student community. Through various sports activities and competitions, Shwayat Riyada not only highlighted athletic talents but also strengthened community bonds and school spirit.

This year's initiative, involving more than 2,400 public and private schools, aimed to promote physical fitness and encourage sports participation among both male and female students.

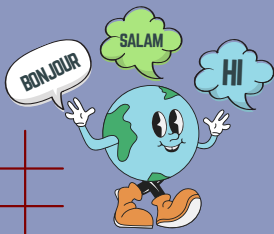

Al Injaz Desert Adventure

Al Injaz International organised an unforgettable two-day outing experience in the stunning landscapes of Ashkara and Bidiyah. Nestled amidst the captivating dunes, these adventure hubs provided a variety of exhilarating activities for thrill-seekers.

Our senior section boys embarked on dune bashing in 4x4 vehicles and ATVs, enjoyed camel trekking across the golden sands, and tried their hand at sandboarding and zip lining for an adrenaline rush. Al Injaz International always makes sure to provide a plethora of engaging activities for its students.

Language Week at Al Injaz

Al Injaz International School recently celebrated its vibrant Language Week, highlighting the beauty of English, Arabic, and French. The event aimed to foster linguistic appreciation and cultural understanding among students. Throughout the week, a variety of engaging activities were organized, including poetry recitals in all three languages, where students showcased their creative talents in the morning assemblies.

Classroom activities focused on storytelling and drama allowed participants to explore narratives from different cultures, while interactive language games helped enhance vocabulary and communication skills.

The week concluded with a trilingual one hour morning assembly culminating in theatrical performances in all three languages. Language Week not only celebrated linguistic diversity, but also strengthened the school's commitment to fostering global citizenship and intercultural dialogue among its students.

Empowering Girls Through Basketball in Association with OBA

On a sunny January afternoon, Al Injaz International Private School hosted a vibrant basketball match celebrating the bond between mothers and daughters. This friendly event promoted teamwork, fitness, and community spirit. Mothers and daughters showcased their skills on the court, having heaps of fun all along.

The event emphasized the importance of physical activity and family engagement, encouraging more families to participate in sports together. With laughter and friendly competition, the event was a resounding success, leaving lasting memories for all involved.

Pyjama Evening at Al Injaz

Al Injaz International Private School hosted a delightful Pajama Evening, captivating students and families alike. The event featured enchanting storytelling sessions in English, French, and Arabic, and a variety of theatrical performances. Children gathered in their cozy pajamas, eagerly listening to tales brought to life by skilled storytellers.

Interactive reading activities further engaged attendees, encouraging them to explore new worlds through books. The evening was a heartwarming celebration of creativity, culture, and community, leaving everyone with cherished memories and a passion for reading.

Oman Environment Day Celebration

On Oman Environment Day, the kindergarten students of Al Injaz International Private School engaged in a vibrant celebration aimed at raising awareness about environmental conservation. The young learners discussed the importance of protecting extinct animals in the Sultanate of Oman, emphasizing their role in the ecosystem.

Through various activities, students explored how to maintain biodiversity and promote sustainable practices. This initiative inspired them to become advocates for a greener future.

A Roaring Good Time

Our Kindergarten children enjoyed an unforgettable cinema experience watching "The Lion King." The event was not just about the movie; it also provided an opportunity for the kids to engage in a fun and interactive way by selling tickets and refreshments to their classmates.

This hands-on experience allowed them to practice essential skills like teamwork, communication, and responsibility. The joy on their faces as they shared popcorn and watched their favorite characters come to life on screen was truly heartwarming. It was a delightful day filled with laughter, learning, and the magic of cinema!
